"KING OF JEWS" IS HISSSED AS SLATON QUILTS

Slaton Retires Without Dishonoring the Seal of the State.

MILITIA PROTECTION AT INAUGURATION

If He Let Frank Hang He Would Be Cowardly Assassin, He Says.

ATLANTA, June 26.—At a luncheon given this afternoon by the Rotary club of Macon in honor of Georgia's new governor, Nat E. Harris, inaugurated today, John M. Slaton, the retiring governor, referred to the case of Leo M. Frank, his action in which evoked a hostile demonstration against him in the closing days of his administration.

"Honest people may disagree with me, an honest man," said the former governor, "but we realize that we must be measured by our conscience. Two thousand years ago another governor washed his hands of a case and turned a Jew to a mob. For two thousand years that governor's name has been cursed. If today another Jew were lying in his grave because I had failed to do my duty, I would all through life find his blood on my hands and would consider myself an assassin through cowardice."

Governor Slaton indicated that he intended going away next week for an extended vacation.

Not Representative People.

"Those demonstrations a few days ago do not represent the sentiment of Atlanta, Fulton county or the state of Georgia," he added, "and while on my vacation to no one will I say aught except in exaltation of the state. In public life we must be prepared to make any sacrifice in the fulfillment of our duty."

No reference to the Frank case was made by Governor Harris in the speech of thanks he made to his fellow citizens of Macon. He expressed the hope, however, that "we will have no more trouble."

During the inauguration ceremonies at the capital there were several tense moments. When Governor Slaton approached the new governor to deliver

SENATOR DAVIS IS NOW A PUBLISHER OF SINGLE TAXER

The latest addition to the Oklahoma literary circles is the "Oklahoma Single Taxer," published by State Senator Clarence Davis of Sapulpa, and the first issue of which is just off the press.

The principal objects of the magazine are to promote the single tax idea in this state and to secure the repeal of Campbell Russell's "Section 12-A" amendment to the constitution. This amendment, were it to become effective, would bankrupt the schools of Tulsa county, causing all the public utility tax to be placed in the state treasury and distributed among all the counties of the state according to their school population.

Senator Davis secured the passage in the last session of a joint resolution, submitting section 12-A to the people for action, and it will be voted upon at the next state election. Under the caption, "Credit to Whom Credit is Due," Senator Davis' magazine contains an acknowledgment of the work done by various parties in the fight against "12-A" during the session of the fifth Oklahoma legislature.

The men who are recognized in this article for the assistance they rendered in the fight to save the public schools of the oil and railroad counties of the state are F. J. Rieck, El Reno; Judge A. P. Vandewater, Bartlesville; E. T. Flakslee, Bartlesville; commercial club; Prof. Robinson, principal Caplan schools; C. A. Sanderson, Tulsa Commercial Club; B. W. Jones, Blackwell commercial club; Hugh Gerner of the state auditor's office.

From there the members of his delegation will go to Portland, Ore., and San Francisco, Cal., by boat, and thence home. ## ASKS PLACE AS JUDGE TO CARRY OUT IDEAS OF CHILD REFORM

MRS. CLARICE MARGOLES BARIGHT & DAUGHTERS DOROTHY & GERTRUDE at left & right.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Mrs. Clarice Margoles Baright, who has applied to Mayor Mitchell for appointment as justice of the court of special sessions, children's division, has outlined the platform upon which she will urge her selection for office. Mrs. Baright is practicing law with officers at No. 170 Broadway. She has two children. She said:

"My plan for dealing with boys and girls has for its ultimate aim the eradication of crime in a large measure by proper handling of first offenders."

There is needed in our social administration some power between the prison and the child of the crowded East Side where the gangster is bred. This power should lie in a children's court, and the dispenser of law in this court should be a woman familiar with children. In my work upon the East Side I have found it toward better lives.

In my work upon the East Side I have found it toward better lives. In my work upon the East Side I have found it toward better lives.

Instead of branding a first offender with a prison or correctional sentence, the child should be turned over to some kind of hearted woman or to some organization of women to develop its surplus energy toward self-government.

COURT HOLDS THAT FRISCO IS LIABLE

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—Claims of bondholders of the Cape Girardeau & Northern railroad against the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad were referred back to a special master for examination today by Circuit Judge Sanborn, sitting in the federal district court.

The claims arose out of the failure of the Frisco to pay interest on first mortgage bonds of the Cape Girardeau line. The claims aggregate $1,277,600.

The special master reported the Frisco was liable for the bonds, but an appeal was taken by the receivers. Judge Sanborn today held that the Frisco was liable, but only for the difference of par value of the bonds and their market value.

The Frisco owns a majority of the Cape Girardeau stock.

Today's ruling upheld the validity of the sale of the Cape Girardeau & Northern, known as the old Houck lines of southeastern Missouri to the Frisco in 1913. Receivers for the Frisco had repudiated the purchase of the Houck lines on the ground that the transaction had not been ratified by the stockholders.

IMPORTERS DEMAND MODIFIED EMBARGO

Organized Pressure Brought to Bear on the State Department.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Pressure of a formal and organized character was exerted today on the United States government to secure from Great Britain modification of the embargo on all commercial intercourse between Germany and neutral countries. Twenty members of a committee appointed by more than one thousand American importers laid before Secretary Lansing Solicitor Johnson and Robert E. Howe, of the board of foreign trade advisers, a petition declaring Great Britain was "studiously avoided" answering the American note of March 39; that valuable time has been lost in preparation.

BROTHER OF TULSA KILLED IN MEXICO; WILL INVESTIGATE

J. B. Camp, who died near Monterey, Mexico, a few days ago, was formerly secretary and treasurer of the Farmers' Co-operative club at Shady Grove, near Coweta, Okla.

A brother of the dead man, J. P. Camp, lives near Tulsa and was notified by wire of his brother's demise. The message stated that Camp suicided, but his brother believes that this is untrue, and is determined to make an investigation to ascertain whether or not he was murdered by Mexican soldiers or raiders.

Camp left Coweta several weeks ago, upon receipt of an urgent telegram from Mexico, calling him to the rescue of his former employer, who was incarcerated in a Mexican prison. No details of the experience that Camp went through near Monterey are obtainable.

The body has been shipped to Houston, Texas, where burial will occur.

ASKS FOR PEACE AND OFFICIALS SUSPEND PAPER

Socialist Organ Appeals for End of War; Government Discontinues It.

SAYS IT MIGHT SHOW A GERMAN WEAKNESS

Big German Guns Shipped to From; May Mean Another Warsaw Attack.

PUBLICATION of the Socialist appeal for peace has resulted in the suspension by the German government of the Berlin newspaper Vorwarts, which has not hesitated on several occasions to express views regarding the war which aroused resentment in official circles. Chief objection to the Socialist party's propaganda apparently is based upon the belief that it may create abroad the impression that Germany is weary of war. The German government evidently believes there is no real basis for such a belief and takes the position that both military and political conditions are favorable to the Austro-German allies.

Petrograd Claims Victory.

Hammering by Teutonic armies against the Russian forces in Galicia continues without cessation, but apparently with less success to the Austro-German armies than during the long weeks of the Galician campaign for Przemyśl and Lemberg.

Petrograd claims victory in a six-day battle along the Dniester, all attempts of the Teutons to gain the north bank of the river having been frustrated with heavy losses.

The latest German official statement admits Russian forces still hold the right bank near Halicz, and says General Von Lindemann's troops continue their attacks to effect a crossing and that fighting is continuing between the Dniester and the district east of Lemberg.

Russian observers believe desperate battles are likely soon around Koenigsberg, near the Dniester, where it is declared the Germans have been concentrating.

Accounts of German military activity in Russian Poland come at the same time as reports that many big guns from Germany are being shipped into that region, possibly in preparation for another drive at Warsaw. Pronounced German successes seemingly have occurred not far from the east Prussian border, the Germans claiming the capture by storm of a Russian position north of Prasnysz and the Russians admitting a reverse there through superior artillery fire.

Neither French nor German statements indicate operations of immediate moment in the west. The French admit lack of progress, due in many places, it is declared, to storm-raged territory on the fighting front, while the Germans set forth the capture of the French trenches and the regaining of some trenches previously lost.

Petrograd reports an important change in the cabinet—the resignation of General Soukhomlinoff, the Russian minister of war.

B. J. Bradley, 25, organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World, who spent some time in Tulsa last year during the I. W. W. agitation here, was murdered last week near Arlington, Kan., and a camp of 150 hobos disappeared the same evening.

The body of Bradley, with the head mangled and a rope around the neck, was found buried along the Rock Island railroad tracks.

A fellow-worker of Bradley's named A. G. Jade and two other members of the I. W. W. are in jail at Hutchinson pending a thorough investigation of the crime.

Bradley had been mingling with hobos and harvest hands in an attempt to organize them for the purpose of securing higher wages from the farmers.

The ground near the body showed indications of a struggle having taken place in which several men participated. An iron bolt with blood and pieces of flesh on it was found.

A camp of 150 employed men existed at Arlington Tuesday evening. The men had all left by Wednesday morning.

The dead man was nearly six feet tall, weighed 160 pounds and had curly brown hair and blue eyes. No information about his relatives or friends has been procured.

Investigate Food Situation.

LAREDO, Texas, June 26.—Stephen Bonnell, a representative of the American Red Cross, left here today for Monterey to investigate the food situation. He announced he would return to Laredo and thence to Vera Cruz, provided he could make the trip by railroad.

AMERICAN GIRL IN ZEPPELIN RAID

CLARA REIS

NEW YORK, June 26.—Miss Clara Reis, fifteen years old, who for two years has been a student at Somerset House, a finishing school at Ramsgate, England, returned to her home in this city aboard the New York and described her experiences during the bombardment of the town by the dreaded Zeppelins.

"I was the only American girl in the school," she said, "there was a five-year-old girl there, but she was taken away some time ago. After the Zeppelins began to make their route over Ramsgate, the teachers of the school hung an enormous bell in the main hall, outside the dormitories. We were drilled when the bell rang to get out of bed, dress and go to another dormitory, where the girls from one year to seven years sleep and help dress them. Then we were all to march out of the building when the danger became great."

"At 2 o'clock on May 17, the big bell woke us up, so we got out of bed and dressed. At the same time the sirens in the town began to blow and we knew it was no drill. There was firing outside. Soldiers were rushing about."

"We peeped out the windows and saw three or four Zeppelins flying low. We heard the noise of their engines and it gave us a creepy feeling. Then they dropped bombs that struck houses and killed two persons. The warships in the harbor were firing at the Zeppelins."

HAS U. S. RIGHT TO SEIZE RUSH'S MAIL

This Point Is Raised in Federal Liquor Investigation at Ft. Smith.

PORT SMITH, Ark., June 26.—Interest in the alleged "moonshine" whisky trade, through which the government is said to have lost many thousands of dollars, centered today in the hearing of a suit in federal court here questioning the right of the United States to seize letters from the Kansas City, Mo., office of the Rush Distilling company. The suit was brought by John L. Casper, head of the company, who with a number of alleged business associates, was indicted by a federal grand jury here this week, charged with various violations of the internal revenue laws.

A part of the information on which the indictments were based is said to have been contained in correspondence taken by federal officers in a raid on the Kansas City offices of the company. Casper alleges the seizure of the documents was against the constitution and his attorneys asserted in the argument today that the correspondence was taken from a place which was not alleged by the government to be an illegal institution.

J. V. Burdland, United States district attorney, declared the correspondence was not in his possession, but in possession of Kansas City federal officers through whose courtesy the documents were permitted to be used by the grand jury.

Federal Judge Frank A. Youngman took the case under advisement. The grand jury, which is still in session, made no further report today.

WILSON'S PEACE PLAN MAY NOW GO GLIMMERING

Huerta and Party of Adherents to Start New Revolution Is Report.

FELIPE ANGELES IS PROMOTOR, IT'S SAID

Hope to Eliminate Villa Then Carry Campaign Against Carranza.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Official news of a severe defeat of the Carranza forces advancing on Mexico City was overshadowed in interest today by announcements from both the Carranza and Villa agencies here that many Huerta adherents, former military commanders and legislators, were en route to El Paso, presumably to start a new military movement.

The Villa agency's announcement, communicated to the state department, said it had a report which, however, was not positive, that Victoriano Huerta was in the party. General Huerta's secretary in New York denied the former dictator was on his way to the border. General Huerta left New York for the west last Wednesday and it was reported he was bound for San Francisco.

The Carranza agency in a statement charged General Felipe Angeles, Villa's chief lieutenant now in the United States, came to set the new movement afoot.

The Carranza and Villa agencies have agreed in their public announcements probably never before since they were established. The fact that both agreed a new movement was afoot in Mexican affairs was regarded as more than usually significant.

To Start New Faction.

Enrique Llorente, confidential agent in Washington of General Villa, issued the following statement:

"The confidential agency has received authentic information that on Kansas City to El Paso, there passed through San Antonio, Texas, Gen. Ygnacio Bravo, Eduardo Casas, Vicente Callera, Jose Alejo Robles, Victor Huerta, Enrique Corrocheta and several military chiefs, with former congressmen and senators of the Huerta administration."

"It is also reported, though not stated positively, that Victoriano Huerta is with the party."
